

URSULINE MINISTRIES
Furthering the mission of the
Ursuline Sisters of Youngstown

On behalf of the Ursuline Sisters, our lay Associates, and the leadership of Ursuline Ministries, we express our grief, dismay, and outrage at the death of George Floyd, as well as Ahmaud Arbery, Breonna Taylor, and too many others before them. In the midst of so much human tragedy and grief around the world because of the coronavirus and its outsized impact on minority communities, it is particularly tragic to witness the senseless death of one more African American.

We join our voices to the many others who pray for the repose of the soul of Mr. Floyd as we also pray for his family and friends and all who have lost their lives or loved ones to violence.

We renew our commitment to work against racism and to help mitigate white privilege. We will continue to use our resources to advocate for the voiceless, accompany the suffering, and uphold the dignity of all God's people.

In these days after Pentecost we pray for a new outpouring of the Spirit of God in our world and especially in our cities. We pray for an end to division and injustice and for the gift of peace promised by Jesus after his resurrection.
